Tempo di Marcia

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction in D major, 2/4 time, marked 'Tempo di Marcia'. The introduction features a melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand, with dynamics mf and rit. indicated. The vocal entry is on the second line, starting with the lyrics 'They have gone from the cit - ies and the'. The piano accompaniment for the vocal entry is marked p and a tempo. The score continues with two more vocal lines, each with piano accompaniment. The lyrics for the first vocal line are: 'They have gone from the cit - ies and the / They've been fight - ing that we may have'. The lyrics for the second vocal line are: 'hill - sides, - From the vil - la - ges, the towns and the farms: - The / free - dom, - As - shoul - der to shoul - der they stood, - The'. The lyrics for the third vocal line are: 'East and the West have sent their best, at the na - tions' call "to / mil - lion - aire and the sons of care a - like - have shed their'. The score concludes with a piano solo section marked rit.
