The Individual Corset.

To the woman who can appreciate the style and beauty of a natural figure, the "a la Grace" corset should especially appeal, since it combines the very latest decree of fashion with the ease and individuality of a perfect fit.

Each new model is thoroughly tried and tested, fitted and refitted in our salons until it represents the acme of fashion and comfort. Only a special quality of warranted rust-proof steel boning is used, giving flexibility and allowing the body plenty of freedom.

a la Grace Corsets are finished in such a variety of styles that no matter how dainty and discriminating a woman may be, there is a corset that will suit both her exacting taste and the requirements of fashion.

C/C a la Grace Corsets

are sold under a full guarantee. This means that the figure must be perfectly fitted, that the lines of the corset will be graceful and stylish; that a la Grace Corsets are warranted rust-proof and will always retain their shapes.

SELLERS-GOUGH

The Largest Exclusive Fur House
in the British Empire

Quality Furs

We will open the new season with a most unique and exclusive collection of fine Paris model fur garments for sets and separate pieces. This house has rightly earned the name for carrying the most comprehensive stocks in all Canada, and this season's stocks greatly supercede in quantity, quality and values any stock we have displayed in the years we have been making and selling fine furs.

We have ransacked the fur centres of the world in selecting the choicest skins and our designers have been spending months at the world's most noted fur fashion centres. We have chosen more skilled designers than ever before, and in the making—as honest as has been the workmanship—we are exacting greater care.

It is not too early to be giving the purchase of new furs serious thought and should you require alterations and repairs on furs that you at present possess now would be the best time to have the work done

HOW HE PROVED IT

They were trying an Irishman charged with a petty offence when the judge asked: "Have you any one in court who will vouch for your good character?"

"Yis, your Honor," quickly responded the Celt; "there's the sheriff there."

Whereupon the sheriff evinced signs of great amazement.

"Why, your Honer," declared he, "I don't even know the man."

"Observe, your Honor," said the Irishman triumphantly—"observe that I've lived in the country for twelve years an'
the sheriff doesn't even know me! Ain't that a character for ye?"

WHY IT WAS

Two young employees of a florist, who are supposed to be variously employed in the rear of the establishment while the boss looks after things in the front, were recently startled by the appearance of the "old man" while they were engrossed in a game of checkers.

The proprietor was justly indignant.
"How is it," he demanded, "that I hardly ever find you fellows at work when I come out here?"

"I know," volunteered one of the youths; "it's on account of those rubber heels you wear."

Diamonds

$160⁰⁰

Per Karat

These Diamonds are positively unsurpassed by any diamond values in America. We guarantee them to be absolutely FREE from flaws, spots or imperfections of any nature whatever, the shape and cutting are faultless, with fine thin edges, and a very fine pure color, with a brilliancy that is dazzling.

No ordinary jeweler can offer you such value; we deal especially in precious stones; and besides get our gems DIRECT from the European cutters for SPOT cash, and considering the fact that we have NO SIDE LINES to depend on, isn't it logical to expect us to undersell others? We create a large demand for our gems by giving customers such value as tend to MAKE them return and buy again.

Remember, when a firm can deal in precious stones EXCLUSIVELY and build up a sufficiently large trade to make it profitable, there must be much in both the firm and its wares to depend on.

Plan Showing Exits of Grand Opera House.

A letter for Gurlie -

Jack took me to the Grand Opera House last night, and it was awfully good. You know he is always so thoughtful; he brought me a box of Cherry Ripe chewing gum and although it was a hot muggy night, it seemed just what was needed to keep one cool, refreshed and happy.

You know this gum has two flavors Wintergreen and English peppermint, Jack brought Wintergreen, and he explained the makers spare no expense in using the flavor from the real little red berries that we used to gather in the woods when we were kiddies.

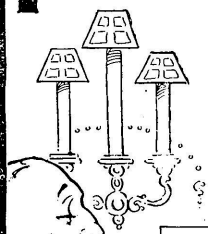

When we got home, at the gate, Jack said my breath was sweet and lovely; but he is such a goose.

The gum is full of life and snap and really, Gurlie! I love it - it is the best I ever tasted.

Jack says dealers make a shade more profit on other gums, and you have to insist upon Cherry Ripe or they will bluff you with cheap old gums that are away behind the times and not made from real chic at all.

Gurlie! if you are at the Theatre to-night, give that coon of yours - a hint.

P.S. I think Jack only paid 5¢ for 10.

that a business has a personality just as a man has; you like some stores, and dislike others, just as you do men. The men you like best are those who respond to your needs, your "best friend" is the one who gives you most of himself; in the true sense, the one from whom you "get most."

Now we don't expect every man to like us any more than you expect everybody to like you. But we do try to give as much as we can; we give values that we feel are unusual, we give store service that we try to make as perfect as we can.

But we mean to sum it all in this: We intend to give ourselves—our knowledge of styles, of qualities; our manufacturing power—to you, and in your interest. We are making many friends.

MARTHA UNDERSTOOD

"Now children," said the teacher, instructing her class in composition, "do not try to imitate another person's writing or draw inspiration from others. You should simply be yourselves and write what is in you."

And as a result of this advice little Martha turned out the following composition :

"We should not attempt any flights of fancy, but write what is in us. In me there is my stummick, lungs, heart, liver, two apples, one piece of pie, one stick of lemon candy and my dinner."

Billy B. Van, the popular little comedian is repeating his musical comedy and success "A Lucky Hoodoo."

Fiske O'Hara the talented singing comedian will tour this season under the management of Augustus Picton, Jr. presenting his new drama "The Rose of Kildare."

Thurston the Majician has several new illusions in his bill this season.

One of the biggest of dramatic hits is "The Divorce Question."

WM. SPRINKS - - PROPRIETOR.

LOOKING HIM UP

Said a foxy young widow named White,
When to marry there came an invie;
"In my heart you're A. I.
But I bank most on 'Dun!'
If your credit there's right—well, I might!"

HIS ENCORES

The fellow played the horn all night. I got up and knocked on the wall a dozen times, but he didn't stop.

I complained to him about it in the morning and he said: "Why, I was going to stop a dozen times, but I got so many encores I had to keep on playing."

THOSE PORTERS

At a hotel in Sandusky, a porter came up just as I got to sleep and pounded on the door. "Hi! Mister," he said, "there's a package just come for you." "Well, I can get it in the morning, can't I?" I said.
And he went away.

About an hour later, just when I'd gone to sleep again, he comes up and bangs the door and hollers: "Say, Mister, that package ain't for you."

IT LOOKED THAT WAY

One morning a man walked into his club smiling and said: "B-b-boys, I'm afraid I t-t-took m-more wine last n-n-night than a ch-ch-church member should t-t-take.

"Why so?" said one of his friends.

"Well, you s-s-see, this m-m-morning, when I c-c-came to b-b-breakfast my wife s-s-said to me: 'William, what was the m-m-naatter with you last n-n-night? You stood beside the b-b-bed for some time l-l-looking at me and finally s-s-said: 'Well, I s-s-swear you two girls look enough alike to-to-to be sisters.'"

Let no man who only pays regard to the fruits of success think that he can bring forth the fruits of the Spirit.

VAUGHAN GLASER

In

"The Grain of Dust"

"The Grain of Dust" is a familiar title to thousands of people in Toronto as the story was run in serial form in a popular weekly paper and was also published in book form. The play was produced locally last season with James K. Hackett in the roll of Frederick Norman, and with Miss Izette Jewel in the role of Dorothy Hallowell, the demure stenographer, and E. M. Holland in a principal part of William Tetlow. The Glaser Company will present Mr. Glaser in the character of Frederick Norman, and Miss Courteney in the role originated by Miss Jewel. William D. Corbett will be cast in the part of William Tetlow, and the remaining characters will be well taken care of. It is said that Mr. Glaser's company is well equipped for a play of the character of "The Grain of Dust," and that it will be given a production quite equal to that of the original company.
