

DEDICATED TO THE BOYS IN NAVY BLUE

JACK'S THE LAD

Written by

JACK SCOTT

Music by

JULES BRAZIL

- 50 -

The Anglo-Canadian Music Publishers' Association, Limited 144 Victoria Street, Toronto, Canada.

Jack's the Lad

Words by Jack Scott

Music by Jules Brazil

Allegro Moderato

VOICE

PIANO

1. Our
2. We are

mil-i - ta - ry songs are sim-ply grand, They cheer the boys in sel-fish with our pat - ri - o - tic songs, Which no doubt with me you

Kha - ki to the fray, The brave lads at the front, Are all must now a - gree But the cho - rus of this song Is bear-ing bat-tle's brunt, But to vic-to - ry the tars will pave the way, Then placed where it be - longs And gives cre-dit to the lads who sail the sea For Hip! Hip! Hip! Hoo - ray! for our sail - or lads to - day Thanks to them we're Jack's the boy for work and — Jack's the boy for play Yes Jack's the boy who'll mis - tress of the sea. For They're the fin - est of them all, help to win the day. For They're the men who built that great sea wall. The grand old British fleet — The foe - men dare not meet, And it nev - er will let the Em - pire fall, For the pir - ates night and day By our tars are kept at bay And they can-not pierce that na - val wall

CHORUS

The foe may boo at our boys in blue But

1. they're the fin-est of them all. For all. 2. D. S.