

official opening and open house at the Toronto Public Libraries' remodelled
Learning Resources Centre
666 Eglinton Avenue West,
Monday, Feb. 23rd at 8 p.m.
opening by Alderman
William Archer, Q.C.

The Chairman and Members of the Toronto Public Library Board cordially invite you to attend the "new" Centre's official opening ceremonies at 8 p.m. in the second floor studio-auditorium.

Following the ceremonies, the sights and sounds of the informal learning program of the Centre are yours to enjoy.

The latest audio-visual learning facilities will be available for your use. Students of the Centre's various classes will give drama, puppetry, film-making and television production demonstrations. Or you can relax in the warm atmosphere of the new audio-visual library where you can listen to your favorite music.

Sculpture, watercolours and oils will be exhibited by the Canadian Society of Artists.
