

Clever Bill

DEC 12 1931

by William Nicholson

One day the Postman brought Mary a letter from her -

Aunt

which said

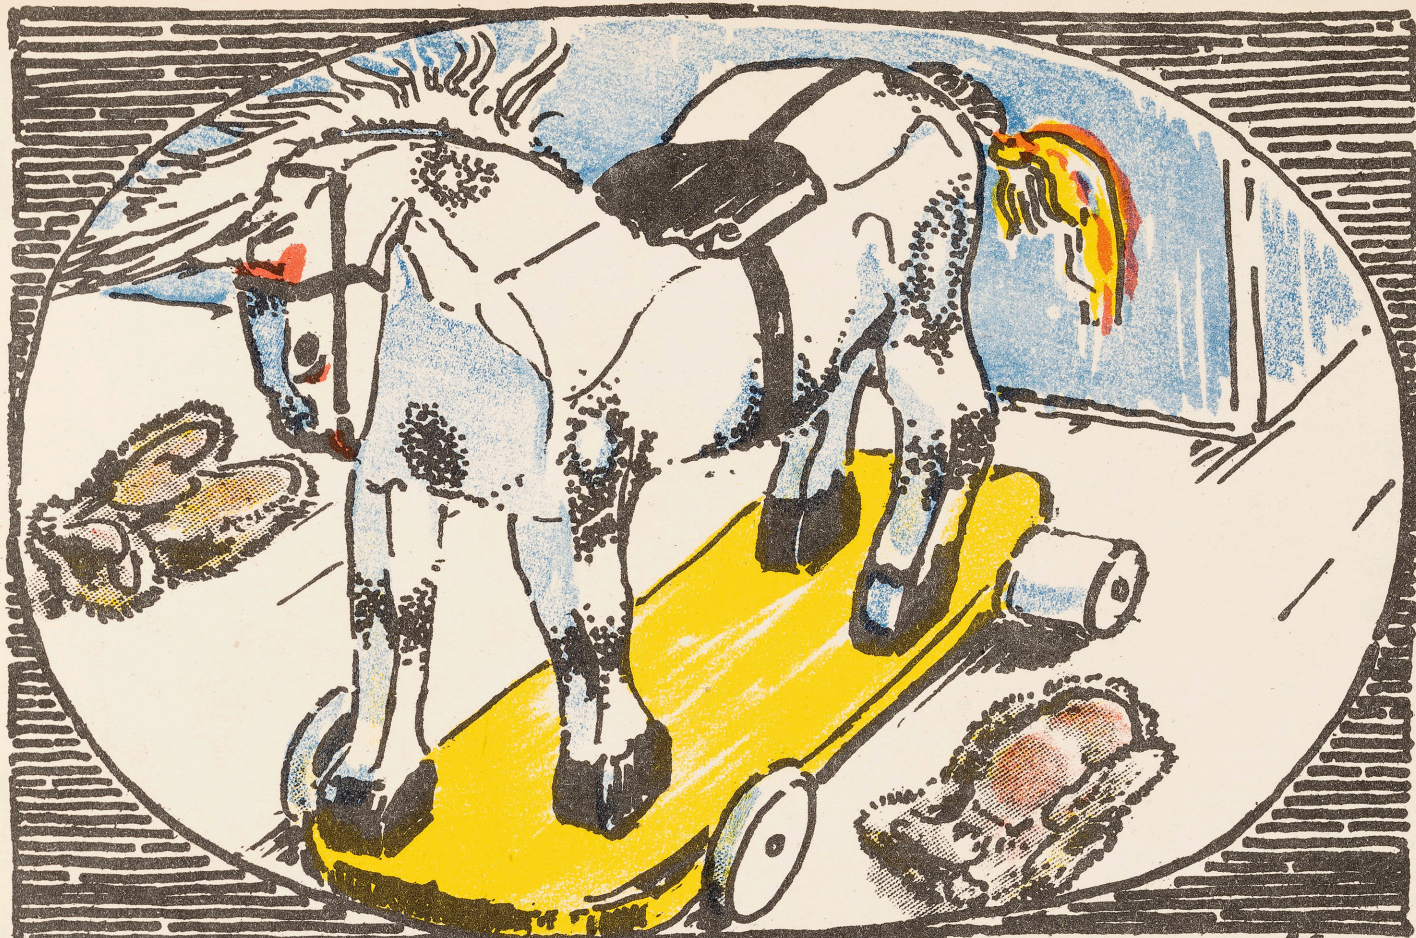

Dear Auntie
thank you verry much for your kind invitation.
I will come on tuesday
I WEnt to a flouwershow yes
today^s there was not many flowers, but mostly vegetables...
Not much of them

LOVE form MARY..

XXXXXXXXXX..

Mary replied

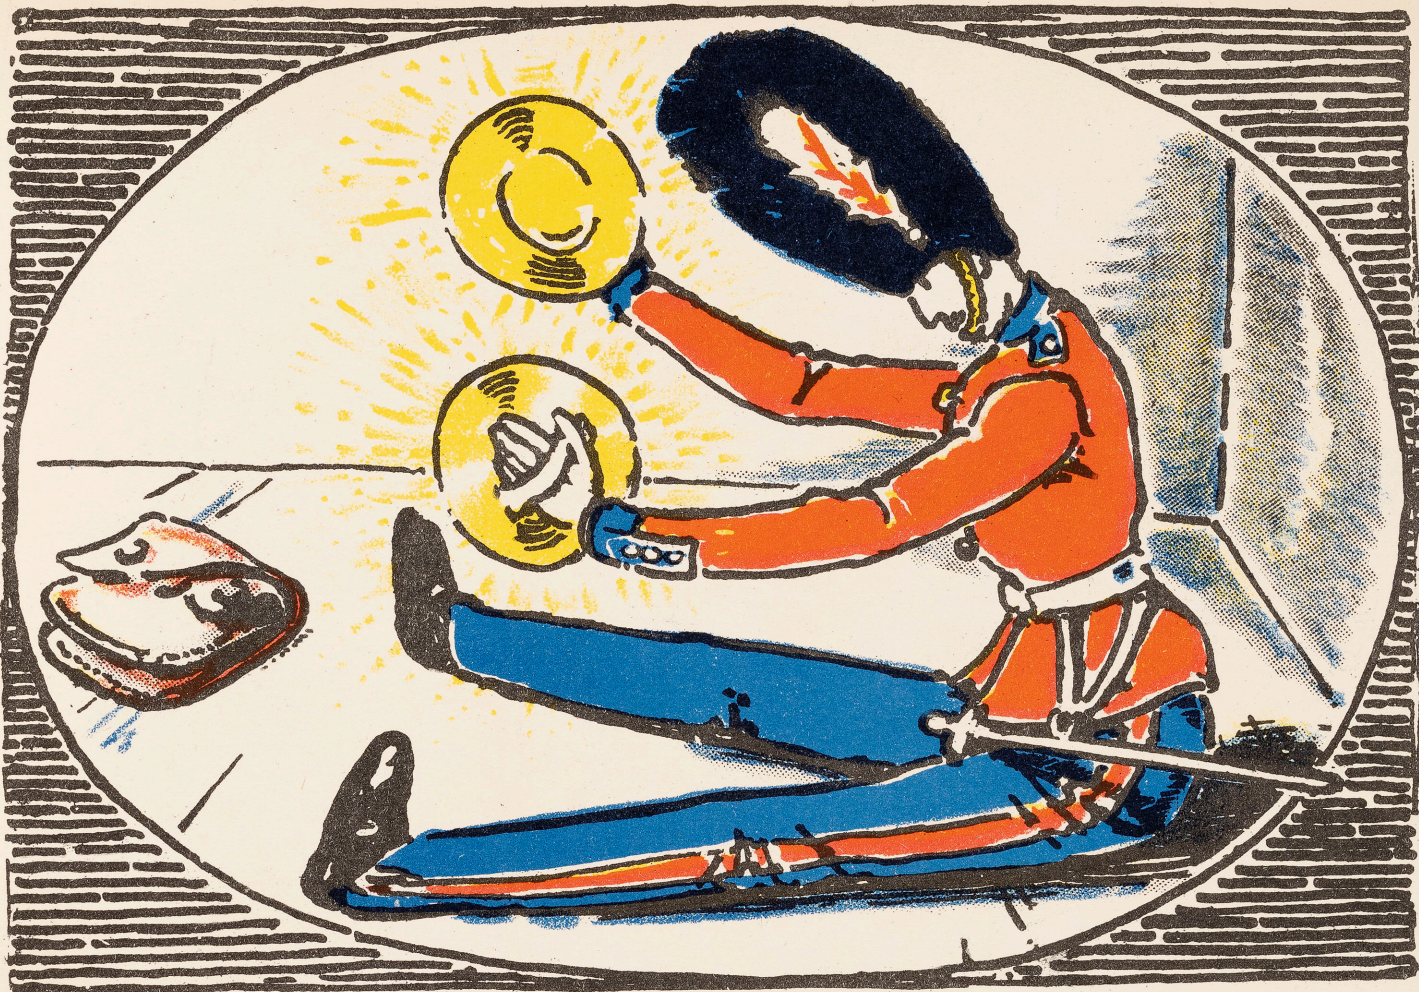

"O! I must take Apple Grey" said Mary
"and my gloves with the thumbs and dear Susan and my Trumpet and and I might need my shoes and my blue teapot and my brush with my name on it and of course I can't leave clever Bill Davis, and my purse - so she brought the box her Father gave her

and

first she packed it this way and then that way and then she packed them that way

and

then this and at last she was in such a hurry that she had to pack them anyway

and!

and!!

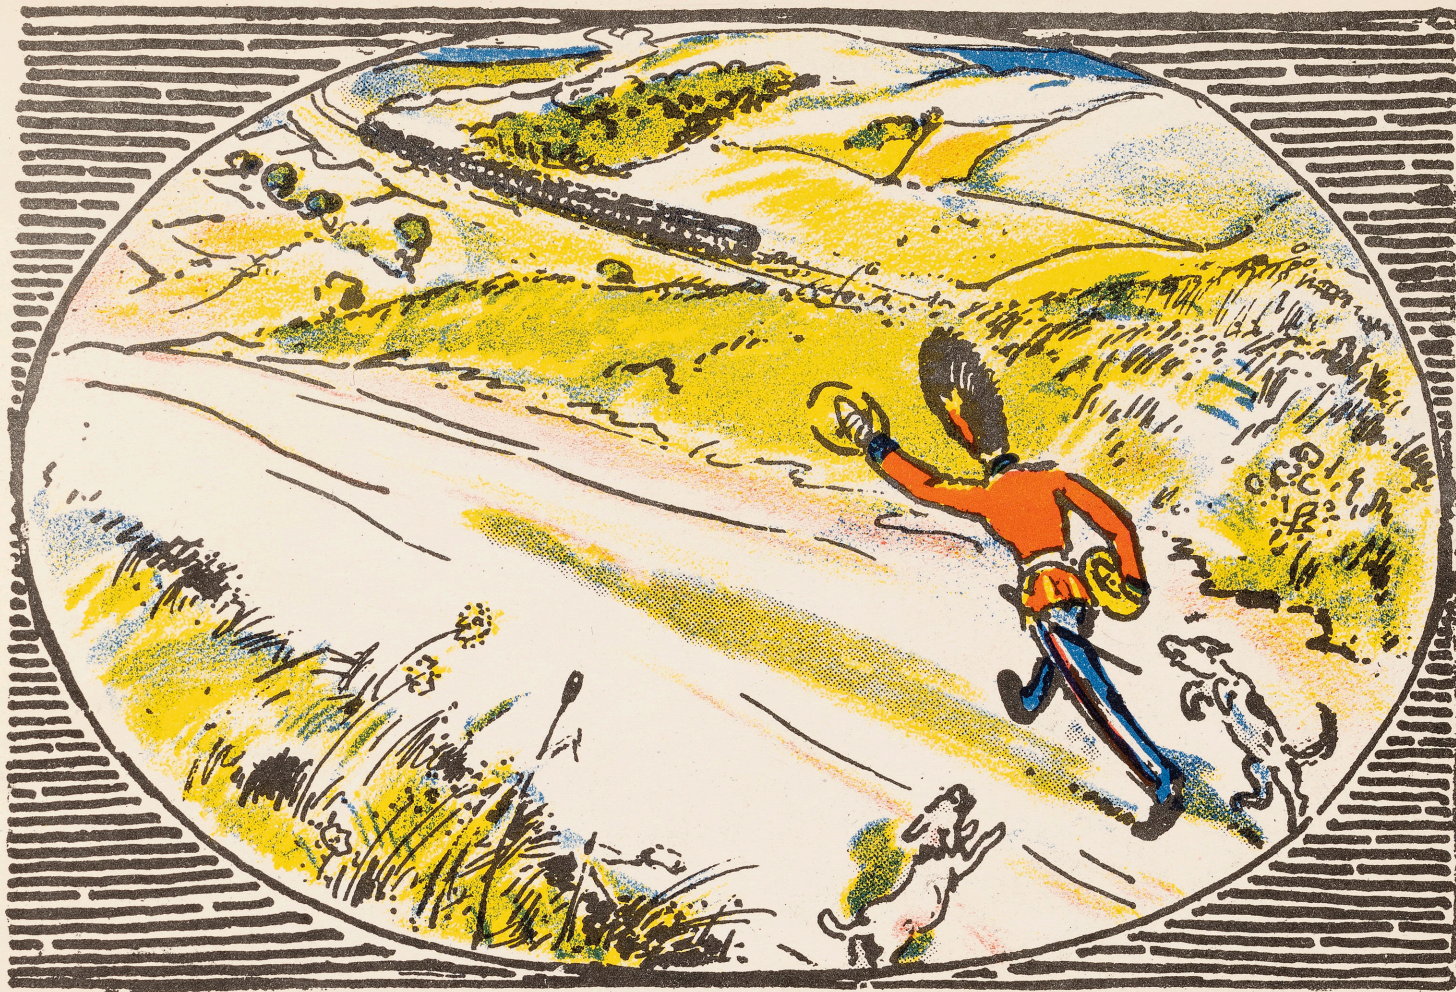

and!!!

and she forgot poor Bill Davis, but he ran

and he ran -

and he ran ~

and he ran so fast that - he was just in time to meet her train at Dover.

"Clever Bill"

741.642 N 37

The LILLIAN H. SMITH
COLLECTION

BOYS AND GIRLS HOUSE
37131 054 261 864 EX-3

TORONTO PUBLIC LIBRARY

This book is the gift of

Lillian H. Smith

Clean Bill
for Jenny

Published by Doubleday, Page
& Co.