

Thelma Squire

Massey Hall Gold Medallist

Toronto's Popular Entertainer and

ELOCUTIONIST

PRESS COMMENTS

A very pleasing recital was given in Foresters' Hall, before a delighted audience, by Thelma Squire, an elocutionist of more than usual attainments. Her various numbers, both humorous and dramatic were cleverly given and well received. . . . Altogether the occasion was an artistic triumph.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

Thelma Squire, a very popular and talented Toronto elocutionist.—Toronto Daily Star.

The readings by Thelma Squire (gold medallist) were very well rendered and greatly applauded.—Toronto Weekly Times.

Miss Thelma Squire, as usual, was very popular and her readings were cleverly given.— Toronto Telegram.

Thelma Squire proved to the gathering that she was an elocutionist of no mean ability.— Oshawa Reformer.

Miss Thelma Squire, of Toronto, Gold Medallist, made her first appearance to a Bracebridge audience and has completely won their hearts as an elocutionist. . . . Miss Squire's rendering of "Tommy's Christmas Dinner" was so amusing that she had to respond to a double encore in reply to the prolonged and continued applause.—Bracebridge Gazette.

PERSONAL COMMENTS

I have much pleasure in stating that I regard Miss Thelma an accomplished elocutionist. She has a clear, resonant voice and has unusual dramatic power.—Dr. James L. Hughes, Toronto.

As an elocutionist I rank Thelma's ability very high and her personality charming.—Rev. E. A. Vesey, Toronto.

Thelma Squire has a natural gift for elocution. That talent, together with her charming personality, completely won the hearts of all whenever she took part at our church garden parties.—Rev. A. M. I. Durnford, Scarborough, Ont.

I have much pleasure in testifying to Thelma Squire's ability as a reader and entertainer. She is the possessor of a fine voice, an attractive stage presence, and is equally at home in both dramatic and humorous numbers. I can heartily recommend Miss Squire to anyone desiring a first-class artist for their program.—The Mildred Walker Studio, Toronto.

Car 2374 7.20 P.M.

Announcement

Thelma Squire, Toronto's popular Elocutionist, is now booking engagements for Recitals, Garden Parties, Church Entertainments and Concerts.

Miss Squire's repertoire includes humorous, dramatic, and musical readings, monologues and dialect studies.

For information regarding terms, dates, tuition, etc., address communications to:

THELMA M. SQUIRE

178 Glenholme Ave.

Toronto 10, Ont.

Phone Kenwood 6918-w

Ld. 7472